- Spoken English practice and performance tasks
- 8 classroom-ready practice worksheets
- Teacher answer key and quick assessment

How to use it

- Teach → practise orally → write → review
- Use the speaking tasks in pairs or small groups
- Keep a vocabulary notebook
- Read aloud with pace and expression
- Adapt stories to the school's prescribed reader

★ About This Curriculum

Four connected pillars turn English knowledge into confident communication.

1. Grammar

- Builds accuracy in speaking and writing
- Rules begin with everyday examples
- Oral practice before written work

2. Prose & Poetry

- Stories, folk tales and poems
- Comprehension, imagination and values
- Read-aloud and expression

3. Vocabulary

- New words every week
- Synonyms, antonyms and word-building
- Use words immediately in sentences

4. Spoken English

- Listening: repeat sounds, answer short audio/story questions, follow directions
- Pronunciation: word stress, v/w and s/sh contrasts, tongue-twisters
- Conversation: shop, school and home dialogues; polite questions
- Performance: Show & Tell, role play, 30-60 second picture description
- Public speaking: self-introduction, beginner JAM and simple group discussion
- Storytelling: retell a familiar story and sequence a picture story

✓ Grade 5 Learning Goals

What learners should be able to demonstrate by the end of the year.

By the end of the year

- Use correct nouns, pronouns, adjectives and simple tenses in daily sentences.
- Read short stories and poems aloud with clear pauses, expression and rhythm.
- Build and use 15-20 new words each month in speech and writing.
- Speak for about one minute on a familiar topic without long hesitation.

Assessment evidence

- Written: grammar/vocabulary worksheets, comprehension and dictation
- Oral: read-aloud, recitation, conversation, role play, Show & Tell/JAM
- Listening: listen & answer, follow instructions
- Portfolio: vocabulary notebook, best worksheet folder and participation

The learning loop

STEP	WHAT STUDENTS DO	TEACHER LOOKS FOR
1. Notice	See/hear the new grammar or vocabulary in a familiar situation.	Understanding of meaning and pattern
2. Say	Repeat, answer, ask and use the target language orally.	Clear pronunciation and complete sentences
3. Practise	Complete short guided exercises and pair tasks.	Accuracy and participation
4. Apply	Use the skill in a paragraph, role play, JAM or story.	Independent communication

Term-wise Curriculum Map

Grammar Syllabus

Building correct, confident sentences through examples and active practice.

GRADE 5 — CORE GRAMMAR

- Nouns — common, proper, collective, gender, number
- Pronouns — personal, possessive, reflexive
- Adjectives & degrees of comparison
- Verbs & simple tenses — present, past, future
- Adverbs of manner, time and place

GRADE 5 — APPLICATION & REVIEW

- Prepositions of place, time and movement
- Conjunctions — and, but, or, because
- Articles — a, an, the
- Punctuation & kinds of sentences

How grammar is taught

- Every rule starts with a picture, situation or everyday sentence before the formal rule.
- Students practise orally first: say the correct sentence before writing it.
- Weekly worksheets mix fill-in-the-blanks, MCQs, matching and short transformations.
- Common errors are collected and revised through quick oral quizzes.

Grammar Practice Ladder

Level	Task	Example evidence
1. Identify	Spot the target word or structure.	Underline the noun / choose the tense
2. Complete	Fill a gap using the correct form.	Complete 5 sentences
3. Transform	Change tense, voice, speech or sentence type.	Rewrite 3–5 sentences
4. Speak	Use the structure in a short dialogue.	30-second partner task

Teacher reminder: accept meaningful variations in open responses while checking the target structure.

Prose & Poetry

Reading, understanding and reciting with feeling • Grade 5

Suggested text	Reading focus	Classroom use
1	The Clever Chameleon	An animal/adventure story about adapting wisely
2	The Village Lantern	A simple folk tale with a clear moral
3	River Song	A nature poem about a flowing river
4	The Rainy-Day Parade	A rhyming poem about animals and seasons

Comprehension Skills

- Answer who/what/when/where/why/how questions
- Find the main idea, message or moral
- Sequence events in the correct order
- Make a simple inference: "Why do you think...?"

Expression Skills

- Read aloud with correct pace and pauses
- Recite a poem with rhythm and actions
- Dramatise a scene from the story
- Retell the story in your own words

Follow-up Writing

- Character sketch in 3–4 lines
- Write an alternate ending
- Create a new stanza in the same rhyme pattern
- Write a diary/letter as a character

Values Discussion

- What lesson does the story teach?
- Has something similar happened to you?
- What would you have done differently?
- Support an answer with a detail from the text.

abc Vocabulary Building

More words, used with confidence • Grade 5

GRADE 5 FOCUS

- Synonyms and antonyms for everyday words
- Homophones — their/there, to/too/two and similar pairs
- Compound words
- Basic prefixes and suffixes — un-, re-, -ful, -less
- Picture vocabulary — animals, food, occupations and feelings
- Theme words: weather, feelings, travel, school and technology

Monthly Theme Word Banks (sample)

Theme	Sample Grade 5 words
Weather & Nature	breeze, drizzle, shade, bloom
Feelings	joyful, nervous, proud, gloomy
Places & Travel	market, harbour, village, cottage
School & Technology	screen, keyboard, device, message

Weekly Vocabulary Routine

- Monday: introduce 5 new words with pictures, actions or examples.
- Wednesday: use each word in one spoken sentence.
- Friday: quick matching/fill-in-the-blank quiz + add the words to the personal vocabulary notebook.
- Monthly: recycle older words in a short paragraph or speaking task.

Word Detective

Ask about every new word

- What does it mean?
- What is a synonym or opposite?
- What part of speech is it?
- Can I use it in my own sentence?

Build a word network

- Base word → prefix/suffix → related words
- Word → picture → situation
- Word → sentence → spoken use
- Review old words before adding new ones

2 Practice Worksheet 2 — Prose & Poetry

Read • Understand • Infer • Express

Name: _____

Date: _____

Read the passage carefully.

Mira found a small lantern outside her grandmother's village house. That evening, a power cut made the lane dark. Mira remembered the lantern and carried it to the community well, where two younger children were waiting for their parents. She placed the lantern safely on the wall so everyone could see the path. Soon, neighbours arrived with more lamps. The children thanked Mira, and her grandmother smiled because Mira had used a small object to solve a big problem.

Answer in complete sentences.

1. Why did Mira take the lantern outside?

2. Where did she place the lantern?

3. How did the neighbours respond?

4. What does the story suggest about solving problems?

5. Put these events in order: neighbours arrived / Mira found the lantern / children thanked Mira / power cut made the lane dark.
